

Case Study

Content

01.	Introduction	3
02.	Bliss	5
03.	More identities	30

INTRODUCTION

What's inside

Here's how it all comes to life in the real world. We'll walk you through a brand built from the ground up, unpacking the strategy, the design decisions, and how everything comes together across key touchpoints. You'll also find a full page of bento-style grids offering a snapshot of other identities we've created. Together, they showcase the breadth of styles and ideas we bring to life—each one rooted in clear, thoughtful strategy.

Bliss BREAKDOWN

Objective

To bring clarity and confidence to the real estate journey: this is Bliss's mission, and it calls for a visual identity that feels grounded, reassuring, and unmistakably human. The goal is to transform navigating the property market often complex and emotionally charged into a transparent and empowering experience. Moving away from cold, transactional cues or overly aggressive sales codes, the visual universe should feel trustworthy, approachable, and refined. Adaptable and consistent across every touchpoint, this identity blends contemporary elegance with warmth and authenticity, positioning the agency as a reliable guide and long-term partner in one of life's most meaningful decisions.

Moodboard

This approche conveys a brand that is professional, trustworthy, and deeply rooted in human connection, using calm visual cues to build confidence and reassurance. The dominant green palette and soft gradients evoke growth, stability, and long-term value, while maintaining a contemporary and refined feel. Human interactions and authentic portraits emphasize partnership, accessibility, and guidance over transactional messaging.

Clean architecture and digital touchpoints complete the system, positioning the agency as a modern, reliable companion throughout the real estate journey.

Meet Bliss

Designed as the visual signature of the agency, the wordmark embodies clarity, confidence, and approachability. Its balanced proportions and refined typography convey professionalism without rigidity, reflecting an expertise that feels accessible and human.

More than a logo, it acts as a constant point of reassurance across every touchpoint signaling trust, stability, and a commitment to guiding clients through the real estate market with care and transparency.

Bliss

Logo Suite

The agency’s logo suite is built from its core wordmark, ensuring strong visual consistency and immediate recognition across all applications. More than a simple typographic treatment, each shape and angle is carefully refined to express confidence, balance, and a sense of direction echoing the agency’s role as a clear guide in the real estate market.

The standalone symbol functions as a flexible signature, adding character and memorability while remaining clean and professional. Together, the system is designed to adapt seamlessly across touchpoints, reinforcing trust, clarity, and long-term presence.

Bliss

Bliss

Find the Place
You'll Call
Home

bliss.agent

Bliss

Find the place

You'll call HOME

+1 2233445566

Primary Palette

The primary palette balances warm, earthy tones with grounded greens to create a sense of trust, stability, and approachability. Soft neutrals bring clarity and breathing room, allowing the identity to feel calm and refined rather than overwhelming.

Accents of warm orange introduce energy and optimism, reflecting momentum and opportunity within the real estate journey.

Together, these colors form a cohesive, flexible system that supports a welcoming, human-centered brand presence across all touchpoints.

Secondary Palette

The secondary palette is built around warm orange hues and their variations, bringing energy, optimism, and approachability to the identity. These tones add emotional warmth and help highlight key moments, calls to action, and branded expressions without overpowering the core system.

Used thoughtfully, the gradient of shades introduces depth and visual rhythm, reinforcing a sense of movement and progress.

This palette complements the primary colors while adding a friendly, distinctive character that keeps the brand feeling alive and engaging.

Unbounded

Unbounded is used for headlines, key statements, and moments that need presence and clarity within layouts. Its geometric structure and confident rhythm give the brand a contemporary, distinctive voice while remaining highly legible. In key moments such as request, find, and buy, Unbounded reinforces decisiveness and progress, helping important actions feel clear and intentional.

The place you'll call home

The place you'll call home

The place you'll call home

The place you'll call home

The place you'll call home

The place you'll call home

Poppins

Poppins supports the system in body copy, UI text, and supporting information, bringing balance and readability to layouts. Its rounded forms soften the overall tone, making longer content feel approachable and easy to navigate. Used alongside Unbounded, it ensures a smooth, human reading experience across digital and print touchpoints.

The place you'll call home

The place you'll call home

The place you'll call home

The place you'll call home

Utilisations

Typography plays a central role in structuring layouts and guiding attention. Unbounded is used to anchor compositions through headlines, section titles, and key statements, creating strong visual entry points and a clear hierarchy. Poppins complements it by supporting body text, captions, and UI elements, ensuring readability and fluid navigation. Together, they create balanced, breathable layouts that feel modern, confident, and easy to engage with across all formats.

Best places
in toronto

100%

Client satisfaction

App Icons

Icons are designed with a minimalist approach, relying on simple shapes and clear visual logic to ensure instant recognition. Typography-inspired proportions and rounded details align the icon system with the brand’s typographic language. This restraint keeps the interface intuitive, calm, and consistent across all interactions.

Key Moments

Key moments in the journey are designed to feel clear, reassuring, and purposeful. Each step is visually distinct yet part of a continuous flow, using color, hierarchy, and simplicity to reduce friction and build confidence. The branding emphasizes progress and clarity, turning complex decisions into structured, human experiences. From first intent to final decision, the system supports users with calm guidance and a sense of forward momentum.

Photography

Photography expresses the brand’s human and trustworthy nature through natural lighting, real environments, and authentic interactions. Images focus on people, places, and details that feel lived-in and relatable rather than staged or aspirational. The overall tone remains calm and balanced, allowing visuals to support the message without overpowering it. This approach strengthens emotional connection while reinforcing credibility and transparency.

Bliss

Bliss

You ask for a house
We'll give you a home

www.bliss.ca

100%
Client satisfaction

You'll find a place to call HOME

Bliss

Find Home, not a house

Property
expert representation
Toronto real estate
premium

Toronto, Canada
130 appartements for sale
Available Soon

WWW.BLISS.CA

Exclusive listings
strategic marketing
expert negotiation
premium results
trusted relationships

MORE IDENTITIES

Vitalys Pro

Vitalys Pro is an Algerian-based animal nutrition supplement brand dedicated to supporting animal health through science-backed formulations.

Designed for veterinarians and animal owners alike, the brand delivers targeted probiotic and nutritional solutions that improve wellbeing, performance, and long-term vitality. We shaped a clear, professional identity rooted in trust, care, and efficacy.

The visual system pairs confident typography, a distinctive organic mark, and a vibrant yet clinical color palette to balance credibility with approachability.

Built to stand out in a traditionally conservative category, the brand feels modern, reliable, and practical helping Vitalys Pro connect seamlessly with professionals while remaining accessible to everyday animal owners.

DIOLATA

Diolata is a France-based ube powder drink brand designed for people who treat wellness as a daily ritual, not a trend. Crafted for a premium, health-conscious audience, the brand blends functional benefits with moments of pleasure, turning everyday routines into something intentional and refined.

We built an identity rooted in calm, balance, and indulgence, where softness meets sophistication. The visual system combines elegant typography, circular graphic motifs, and a muted yet distinctive color palette to evoke serenity and quality.

From packaging to lifestyle imagery, every touchpoint is designed to feel elevated, modern, and effortlessly aligned with mindful living.

Vanèlla

Vanella is a beauty brand rooted in self-expression and everyday confidence, designed for people who see skincare as both care and statement. Built around the idea that beauty is personal and empowering, the brand speaks to a modern, style-aware audience that values quality, identity, and emotion as much as results.

We crafted an expressive visual identity anchored in warmth, individuality, and optimism. The system blends bold typography, a distinctive star-like symbol, and a rich, sun-tinted color palette to create a look that feels vibrant yet refined.

From product packaging to digital content, every element is designed to feel confident, inclusive, and unmistakably Vanella turning daily beauty routines into moments of ownership and self-affirmation.

